

Cotton Fields and Crazy Notions: A Daughter Remembers Life in a Sharecropper s Family

By Gloria Rochelle

Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Large Print. 279 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In this remarkable memoir, retired nurse and African American patriot Gloria Rochelle details her life as a youngster growing up in the deepest part of the Deep South during the 1940 s and 50 s. Gripping in scope, intimate in detail, Gloria s story is a testament to the joy and laughter, the struggles and heartaches of a sharecropper s family thrust into the middle of the Civil Rights Movement at first by virtue of their birth dates and then by virtue of a federal call to justice. Walk with Gloria across Pettus Bridge during the Selma to Montgomery March; attend her as she hears the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. in his church; stand in line at his bier with her after he is gunned down. And find out why Gloria believes Governor George Wallace may have received a fly-in-amber bum rap in today s history books. If you think you know everything there is to know about this particular time in history, you re in for some pulse-raising surprises. and more than a...
