

Crossing the Divide: Representations of Deafness in Biography

By Rachel M. Hartig

Gallaudet University Press, U.S. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Crossing the Divide: Representations of Deafness in Biography, Rachel M. Hartig, This remarkable volume examines the process by which three deaf, French biographers from the 19th and 20th centuries attempted to cross the cultural divide between deaf and hearing worlds through their work. The very different approach taken by each writer sheds light on determining at what point an individual's assimilation into society endangers his or her sense of personal identity. Author Hartig begins by assessing the publications of Jean-Ferdinand Berthier (1803-1886). Berthier wrote about Auguste Bebian, Abbe de l'Epee, and Abbe Sicard, all of whom taught at the National Institute for the Deaf in Paris. Although Berthier presented compelling portraits of their entire lives, he paid special attention to their political and social activism, his main interest. Yvonne Pitrois (1880-1937) pursued her particular interest in the lives of deaf-blind people. Her biography of Helen Keller focused on her subject's destiny in conjunction with her unique relationship with Anne Sullivan. Corinne Rocheleau-Rouleau (1881-1963) recounted the historical circumstances that led French-Canadian pioneer women to leave France. The true value of her work resides in her portraits of these pioneer...

READ ONLINE
[6.92 MB]

Reviews

If you need to add benefit, a must buy book. Better than never, though I am quite late in start reading this one. I am effortlessly could possibly get a satisfaction of reading a created pdf.

-- Trevar Von

This publication can be really worth a go through, and superior to other. It is amongst the most amazing publication we have go through. You won't feel monotony at anytime of your own time (that's what catalogues are for about when you request me).

-- Ms. Elda Schaden MD