Notwithstanding the national crisis and the absence of many of our members at the front, the attendance was quite as good as in previous years. The addresses, papers, and discussions were of more than average interest, and much more helpful than usual. The meeting was honoured by the presence of Dr. Headlam (Board of Education) and Mr. Stanley Leathes (Chief Civil Service Commissioner), both of whom took part in the discussion on the Teaching of European History. The meeting had also the pleasure of hearing a former President, Dr. Macan, Master of University College, Oxford, who proposed a humorous vote of thanks to the President of the year for his Address. Of the realities of the war our members were reminded by the Lecture given by Professor Dontrepoint, of the University of Louvain. After a short business meeting, at which some of the Rules of the Association were altered, at twelve o'clock the President began his Presidential Address, which might be entitled, A Plea for Charity, for Accuracy, and for Better Literature: To no Society meeting in London this week should the war appeal more poignantly than it does to the Modern Language Association. At the call of the country, many of our members have undertaken duties that prevent them being here to-day. Some are standing in peril of their lives; a few have passed out of the range of...
