Good labor is bringing $2.25 per day and regular workmen cannot be secured. The D. J. Kennedy Co., from its East End yard, reports a little slump in business in the city during the past two weeks. This is laid to high prices, especially. A considerable amount of building is being held up on account of the abnormally high bids and the company does not look for any brisk developments this summer on that account. John A-Strouss, of Knox, Pa., Strouss Bragdon, says that prices for lime, cement, clay, tile, brick and other material are no higher than they w-ere four or five years ago. Brick are only up about fifty to eighty cents per 1,000 and lime only a few cents a barrel. Mr. Stroues believes that by the end of the year the volume and value of the...
