

Philippine Observer, Vol. 1 (Classic Reprint)

By Marvin a Rader

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Philippine Observer, Vol. 1 The purpose of the exhibit was to improve and standardize industrial education in the work of the schools. There were several thousand different pieces of furniture or other articles made by students. Most of these were for sale and were quickly picked up by purchasers. The exhibition was an education in itself. The perfection, the improved variety of furniture, wood work, embroidery, carving, vegetables, fruit, and what not cannot help but inspire every one with a desire to return to one s home and begin at once to raise the standards all along the line. In one place we read this: Given the finest woods in the world, People unaccustomed to modern tools, Frail houses with little furniture. The Problem: To teach the people how to make better houses and better furniture. Solution: 13 Trade Schools. 22 Manuel Training Schools. 206 Primary wood working Shops. 20,000 boys doing wood-work. This work will help to train the hand as well as the mind, to teach the dignity of labor, to place a...

READ ONLINE

[3.93 MB]

Reviews

I just started out reading this ebook. I could comprehend every little thing out of this written e book. I am pleased to inform you that this is actually the very best publication i have read through inside my personal life and could be he best ebook for ever.

-- Antonia Orn IV

It becomes an incredible publication that we actually have at any time read. It is one of the most incredible book i actually have go through. I am just delighted to tell you that this is actually the finest pdf i actually have read through within my personal life and might be he finest publication for actually.

-- Prof. Hilma Robel